Second Thursday of Each Month

March 12, 2026

Attendance

25 members attended.

Meeting Minutes

Old Business:

President Dave J. thanks our February speaker, Paul DeFilice of ANACS. Dave shared that ANACS coins are accurately graded but sometimes tougher to sell.

New Business:

Ken discussed the upcoming Front Range Coin Club Spring Coins and Collectibles show at the Boulder County Fairgrounds. Ken reported that one table was available due to a cancellation, and over 1500 postcard reminders have been sent out. Ken was still looking for volunteers to help with various show activities.

Dan Roussin shared that there will be a hearing in Denver on the state sales tax exemption for coins and bullion. House Bill 1289 included language to remove the sales tax exemption for coins and bullion, which would be devastating to our hobby and coin businesses. Ashley Sandoval, representing the Colorado Professional Numismatist Organization will have a table at the FRCC show. This organization is lobbying to remove this provision from the House Bill and preserve the state sales tax exemption.

President's Corner

President Dave Jaeger reminded the group about the ANA Summer Seminar, which is in June/July in Colorado Springs. Session One is June 20-25, and Session Two is June 27-July 2. In Session Two, Dave will be giving a mini-seminar called: "Carson City: The Mint, The Technology, The Coins". Link to the Summer Seminar program:

Presentation(s)

Dave Feely gave a comprehensive talk about collecting US currency and passed around examples of various types to show up close.

Treasurer's Report

There are many types of currency that people collect, including star notes, colonial notes, silver certificates, gold notes, red seals, horse blankets, national bank notes, errors, sheets, etc. Dave went into detail on each type of currency including how sheets are printed and how error notes are formed.

Dave showing sheets of currency

One point that Dave was very clear on was that notes have fronts (or face) and backs, not obverse and reverse like coins. Overall, Dave gave a masterclass on collecting US currency. Thanks Dave for this excellent presentation!

Bob L. reported the club bank account balance was $19,970.85. Just a reminder that club dues for 2026 are due.

Drawings/Door Prizes

Jeff Malley won both the quarterly 1/10 oz gold eagle and the monthly silver eagle drawings. Erin B. and Dev B. also won door prizes.
